

NEWS OF THE DAY CONCERNING CHICAGO

Clarence Peterson, 6, 1245 Barry av., killed, and Ebeline Schultz, 7, 1249 Barry av., seriously injured by Sheffield av. car at Barry av.

Mrs. George Ghisela Shoeberg, 50, 909 Lowell ct., dropped dead in grocery store, 1513 W. Polk st., Heart disease.

Lazelle Earl, street car motor-man, died yesterday from injuries received in crash Tuesday at W. Lake and N. 60th, Austin. Man was hurried away from accident, and police did not know of it until body was removed to undertaking shop.

Ferdinand Meschede, butler, arrested yesterday as forger. Meschede has "butled" in several fashionable homes, and valuables have been missed from many of them. He forged name of Mrs. Jennie M. Conrad, an employer.

Score of persons walked over $1,800 diamond ring which Mrs. M. D. Kennedy of Glen Ellyn, Ill., lost in the lobby of the Auditorium hotel before a messenger boy found and returned it.

Mrs. Margaret Tooke went away on a visit. Left her pet cat with Charles A. Miner. While she was away the cat had 13 kittens. Miner asked $13 board. Mrs. Tooke refused. Miner is suing.

Six ministers have asked park commissioners to discontinue Sunday band concerts in McKinley park, declaring people will not come to church as long as concerts continue.

From way these six ministers talk, probably they are the real reason people won't come to their churches.

Fire of unknown origin early today caused $50,000 damage to Kunstader Bros.' wholesale jewelry store, 323 W. Adams street.

"The suffragettes seems to be developing brain at the expense of bosom."—J. West Higson, professor of surgery at Herring Medical College.

Antone Morici, whose store, 906-8 Milton ave., was partly wrecked by bomb explosion Tuesday, says labor trouble and not "Black Hand," is responsible. Police stick to latter theory. Morici runs non-union bakery.

The Hamilton club, political organization made famous by fact that Col. Roosevelt refused to dine there if Senator Lorimer was to be present, held banquet last night to celebrate increase in membership.

Mrs. Isabel Brooke, 5641 W. Superior street, had husband before Judge Goodnow in court of domestic relations because he deserted her every now and then. Judge called man an "intermittent" husband, and ordered him to stay with wife.

John Bishop, homeless, starving, smashed window at 309 Wabash ave., and asked policeman to arrest him so he could have place to sleep and eat for few weeks. Accommodated.

John Sulkowski, special policeman for Swift & Co., held without bail by coroner's jury on